Part 5 - Data privacy

As the data controller of the Nestlé UK Pension Fund (the Fund), the Trustees can hold certain personal data about members of the Fund, and, where we need to, their dependants and beneficiaries. We collect this information from either you or from Nestlé when you were employed by them. In order to run the Fund, we need to share your personal data with the Fund's administrators, actuary, legal advisers, Nestlé and other relevant organisations.

As the Trustees of your pension fund, we have a legitimate interest in holding and processing information about you. We do this so we can administer the Fund properly and calculate and pay your benefits. We also hold and process this information so that we can meet our obligations under the Fund's governing documents, as well as relevant legislation.

As part of our role in keeping your data safe, we must also let you know about the rights you have relating to the information we keep about you. You can find out more about these rights in our personal data privacy statement at nestlepensions.co.uk/deferred/privacy-policy

You can also ask for a paper copy of the personal data privacy statement by getting in touch with us using the contact details at nestlepensions.co.uk/deferred/contact-us
